

OUR CONDITION

God created us to enjoy our relationship with Him and each other. It is our sin that keeps that from happening. As a result of that sin, we are unable to in any way live up to the holiness of God. All of our noble attempts, such as religion, good works and morality, to restore our relationship with Him are futile because they fall short of His design. Left to our own devices, we are objects of His righteous judgment.

"There is a way that appears to be right, but in the end it leads to death." (Proverbs 14:12)

"But your iniquities have separated you from your God; your sins have hidden his face from you, so that he will not hear...All of us have become like one who is unclean, and all our righteous acts are like filthy rags; we all shrivel up like a leaf, and like the wind our sins sweep us away. No one calls on your name or strives to lay hold of you; for you have hidden your face from us and made us waste away because of our sin." (Isaiah 59:2; 64:6)

"But because of your stubbornness and your unrepentant heart, you are storing up wrath against yourself for the day of God's wrath, when His righteous judgment will be revealed...There is no one righteous, not even one; there is no one who understands; there is no one who seeks God...for all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God...the wages of sin is death, but the gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord." (Romans 1:5; 3:11,23; 6:23)

GOD'S PROVISION

God actually reached to us and made the way for our fellowship with Him to be restored. He sent His sinless Son, Jesus Christ, to take the penalty for our sins by dying on the cross. When we receive Christ as our Lord and Savior, we are accepted into God's family by virtue of Who Jesus is and what He has done on our behalf. Thanks to Him, we become objects of God's grace, mercy and forgiveness.

"Yet to all who did receive him, to those who believed in his name, he gave the right to become children of God...For God so loved the world that he gave his one and only Son, that whoever believes in him shall not perish but have eternal life...whoever hears my word and believes in Him who sent me has eternal life and will not be judged but has crossed over from death to life...I have come that they might have life and have it to the full." (John 1:12; 3:16; 5:24; 10:10b)

"Very rarely will anyone die for a righteous person, though for a good person someone might possibly dare to die. But God demonstrates his own love for us in this: While we were still sinners, Christ died for us." (Romans 5:7-8)

You can receive Him now by praying as follows: "Lord Jesus Christ, I admit that I am a sinner. Thank you for dying on the cross for my sins. I surrender myself to you. Please come into my life as my Lord and Savior. I intend to follow you and I trust you to make me the person you want me to be. Amen."
